

Revision: #3 Quizzing

- ✓ Create quizzes using questions that are the correct level (e.g. from past papers)
- ✓ Create short quizzes that you can use frequently (e.g. revisit every few days)
- ✓ Ask friends and family to quiz you.

Avoid quizzes found online unless you are certain that all answers are correct and that they are at the required level.

The screenshot displays the Quizizz logo at the top right and the Achieve logo at the top left. Below the logos, a list of four quiz questions is shown:

- What should you evaluate in an introduction?
- What are effective strategies for beginning an introduction?
- What are the functions of a conclusion in writing?
- What techniques does the writer use to effectively conclude an article?
